Local Option Anniversary.

That the Local Option Law on Chincoteague is pretty generally observed, no one who is acquainted with the facts of the case, and who will admit its violation, the cases are sporadic, and no less can be said of any law on our statute books. We could not expect otherwise when we take into consideration the fact that the adoption of prohibition was carried by an overwhelming majority, almost unanimous saint and sinner, Democrat and Republican, all enlisted in the one common cause.

For fifty years the advocates of this great movement in our midst have been engaged in the fight against the sale of their time, talents and money have been freely given in defence of their convictions, and the history of their legal battles with the enemy can be found among the archives of your courts; while in the heart of our town, the last night of the year, an ornament and a monument to the cause, and to the noble heroes who laid upon its altar their sacrifices. To these heroes, first, we are indebted for the blessings of prohibition; from the rum curse, and the generations that are being born, and will rise up and call them blessed.

The first anniversary of our victory is to be celebrated under the auspices of the Good Templars, Saturday April 23d, at Temperance Hall and Sunday April 24th at the Hall and all the churches. The Revs. Robert Todd, J. A. B. Wilson, Alpheus Mowbray of the Wilmington Conference, Messrs. Warner and Snyder the temperance evangelists of Philadelphia and others are engaged for the occasion. Refreshments and socials will be given, and all are invited to participate. The friends of this great moral victory are invited to participate. Programme for each day can be had of the Good Templars, or of the committee on the presentation of a bill in our Legislature, by the representative from Washington county to repeal our local option law, was received by both political parties with indifference and threats of violence. Such a repeal, if successful, will prove almost the annihilation of the two old political parties here, and result in the organization of the Prohibition party, that will sweep everything before it.

As masters of the situation, we demand a compromise, and shall deliver the same, under such, to the Board of Supervisors, for their examination, and approval or rejection, at their first meeting thereafter.

Personal. The following complimentary notice appears in Norfolk Landmark of recent date in reference to Miss Chabourne, who proposes to make Accomack her permanent home. The Landmark being edited by the gifted James Barron Lodge, prize from the State of Virginia, it is to be hoped that the talented lady upon whom we have a claim by becoming one of us, will favor us with her writings at many points in our county. She is entitled to a cordial reception by our people, not only because of her talents, but for the reason also that she has faith in us by investing her means in our midst, as member of the "Parkley Land Improvement Company," and as the purchaser recently also of a tract of land near Parkley. The following is the notice which appeared in the Norfolk Landmark:
